The MedMe search engine is rather easy to use. You can even search without being logged in. You will have to register a MedMe Account, only if you have found the treatment of your liking and are ready to book an appointment.

You can search by Treatment / Specialization or by location (country or city) in order to find the match for your needs.

You may also specify the date of your intended visit to the Specialist.

After clicking on the search button, you will find the listed search results for the specified region. Results are also displayed on the map on the right-hand side. By navigating / zooming the map, you are able to specify the search region more precisely, the results will be recalculated automatically.

After selecting a treatment, you will have access to all given information about the procedure itself, and also about the clinic / doctor together with any reviews from former patients booking through MedMe. You may start a conversation with the Healthcare Provider to obtain more information, to get answers to your questions, and to finalize your booking.

By clicking on the Start Conversation button you basically initiate the booking procedure of which the first stage is making sure that you made the right choice by talking to your selected specialist.

MAKE AVAILABLE

After you initiate a conversation, the doctor or clinic may contact you for more information or answer your questions, if any.

As soon as you agree on the details, the healthcare provider may „make the offer available” for the patient. The patient then has the final say in making the booking.
